

Congressman Harry Teague is hosting a series of Small Business Resource Workshops across the 2nd congressional district. The series of fairs will kick off at the Permian Basin Regional Training Facility in Carlsbad on Monday, August 30th. These events will connect small business owners with federal and local government agencies and lender groups to provide the opportunity to ask questions and learn more about the resources available to support small business efforts.

Representatives from the USDA Rural Development program, Small Business Development Center (SBDC), Certified Development Companies, and additional alternative lenders will be on hand to provide information and answer questions. Small businesses and members of the public are encouraged to attend to learn more about these programs.

Teague is also hosting additional Small Business Resource Workshops in Roswell, Alamogordo, Las Cruces, and Los Lunas. These events are free and open to the public.
